Explanation of Responses:

* If the form is filed by more than one reporting person, see Instruction 5(b)(v).

 Intentional misstatements or omissions of facts constitute Federal Criminal Violations. See 18 U.S.C. 1001 and 15 U.S.C. 78ff(a).

(1) The Class B ordinary shares of the issuer will automatically convert into Class A ordinary shares of the issuer on a one-for-one basis (subject to certain adjustments, including share sub-divisions, share capitalizations, reorganizations, recapitalizations and other transactions) concurrently with or immediately following the consummation of the issuer's initial business combination, as described in the section entitled "Description of Securities" in the issuer's registration statement on Form S-1 (File No. 333-257517) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 29, 2021. The Class B ordinary shares have no expiration date.

(2) Up to 438,587 of the Class B ordinary shares reported herein will be surrendered to the issuer for no consideration after the closing of the initial public offering depending on the extent to which the underwriters' over-allotment option is exercised.

(3) The reporting person is the record holder of the Class B ordinary shares reported herein. There are three managers of the reporting person. Each manager has one vote, and the approval of two of the three managers is required to approve an action of the reporting person. Under the so-called "rule of three," if voting and dispositive decisions regarding an entity's securities are made by two or more individuals, and a voting and dispositive decision requires the approval of a majority of those individuals, then none of the individuals is deemed a beneficial owner of the entity's securities. Therefore, no individual manager of the reporting person exercises voting or dispositive control over any of the securities held by the reporting person, even those in which he directly holds a pecuniary interest. Accordingly, none of them are deemed to have or share beneficial ownership of the reported securities.

Note: File three copies of this Form, one of which must be manually signed. If space is insufficient, See Instruction 6 for procedure.

Potential persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB number.
